WASHINGTON, Aug. 14 (INS)—The House Un-American Activities Committee today gave its protection to Mrs. Oksana Kosenkina, Russian school teacher now in a New York hospital.Mrs. Kosenkina was hospitalized for injuries suffered when she jumped from a third floor window of the Russian Consulate in New York.Meanwhile, Rep. Mundt (R) S. D., acting committee chairman, predicted the recall of Joseph Lomakin, Soviet Consul in New York.Mundt said Lomakin would be recalled first because his actions had made an unfavorable impression on the people of this country, and second because from a Russian viewpoint he had mishandled the Kosenkina affair, Mundt said:"If he's lucky, he will go to the salt mines. If he's unlucky, something worse will happen."Robert E. Stripling, the committee's chief investigator, left Washington to serve a subpoena on Mrs.
Kosenkina at the hospital.He carried with him a "stand-by" subpoena signed by Rep. Thomas (R) N. J., committee chairman, directing her to keep herself available for possible questioning later by the committee.Stripling planned to question Mrs.
Kosenkina if her conditions permits.
The committee decided to serve a subpoena on her after she charged that she was kept a prisoner in the consulate and wished to remain in this country.The State Department rejected a Soviet protest and promised Mrs.
Kosenkina and two other fugitive Russian school teachers, Mr. and Mrs. Mikhail Samarin, asylum in this country if they wished to remain here. Samarin was questioned by the committee Thursday in Washington but furnished the members no pertinent information on the Communist spy ring whose activities have been under investigation.Stripling took with him another committee investigator and an official committee reporter to make a transcript of any conversation that might be held with Mrs. Kosenkina.The committee planned to wind up more than two weeks of public hearings Tuesday and recess until Sept. 2 when new testimony will be taken. In the meantime, committee investigators will sift the voluminous testimony already taken and attempt to find out what witnesses were not telling the truth.Rep. Mundt (R) S. D., said the Hiss brothers—Alger and Donald—might be given an opportunity to "confront" Whittaker Chambers, former ex-Communist spy courier.
Chambers accused them of being members of the wartime espionage ring.The hearings were expected to close with the testimony Monday and Tuesday of what were termed by one committee member "minor witnesses who might be able to throw some light on the spy ring."

GLEANED BY SCRIBES

The little deer, known to residents of Warwick township as "Bambi," is safe in the Warrington township area now, according to a number of folks who have seen him lately. And he is sporting two points.The deer, last year, became a pet in the Warwick township area, and his friends feared for his safety during gunning season. When the animal failed to appear for a time folks thought he had met his fate.
But "Bambi" has been seen several times lately, but has changed his address.A violent wind and rain storm reaching cloudburst proportions struck Kintnersville after six o'clock Wednesday evening.The creek covered the meadowland damaging a fine field of sweet corn owned by Edward Seader.Another landslide along the River road closed traffic below the bridge.
State highway employees were kept busy Thursday removing the debris.
It is reported that considerable damage was done to the "Wee Chateau," the James Thompson property.

A SUMMARY OF THE NEWS

In Washington the State Department said that the United States Ambassador in Moscow had rejected Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov's charge that this Government had assisted in the "kidnappings" of two Russian school teachers.Three high officials in the Roosevelt Administration, Harry Dexter White, Laughlin Currie and Frank Coe, told the House Committee on Un-American Activities that they had never been members of any Communist spy ring and asserted that they did not even know of the existence of any such organization.A White House announcement disclosed that President Truman would open his campaign with a Labor Day talk in Detroit under the sponsorship of both major labor organizations. Later in September Mr. Truman is scheduled to make a tour of the Western states.Reports reaching London on the Moscow negotiations between the representatives of the Western powers and Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov showed some optimism.
These indicated that the prospects for an eventual agreement were a little more hopeful than seemed possible a few days ago, but emphasized that a wide gulf still separated the negotiators.

Lack of Common Courtesy

(By "The Stroller")
On all sides today one notices the lack of courtesy, one of the essentials for people to get along well together in this world.A well-known writer, a few days ago, bemoaned in the public press the fact that "No one has any manners any more." At least it seems that way at times.The home is not fulfilling one of its basic duties in many instances—children not being trained to be courteous to their fellow-beings, or children apparently being upheld in such actions through lack of remonstrance by their parents when they are discourteous.Many young folks are discourteous to their elders, to their employers; older folks are discourteous to the "other driver" on the highway; and the person they meet in the street—offtimes without cause.A Bristol woman, this week, noticing that the borough's ash collector placed her ash can inside that of her neighbor's and put the two cans in front of one residence, inquired, "Why don't you put the cans where they belong?"The uncalled-for and most discourteous answer to this simple question was "Aw, shut up."Haul out your odds and ends they'll bring you a profit through

Morrisville In A YearMORRISVILLE, Aug. 14—In the 12-month period June 1, 1947, to June 1, 1948 a total of 83 new homes were built in the Morrisville area according to borough engineer Harry H. Lee, Jr.The borough engineer states that 156 building permits for new home construction, additions to garages and buildings, sun parlors, apartments, and other improvements were issued at a total estimated valuation of $708,954.Despite the increases in building costs, the figures released by Lee show that more people are now building and improving their properties. A year ago 62 permits were issued with an estimated valuation of $479,600. Sixty of these permits were for new homes.Most of the new homes now under construction are in either the Man-

CIGAR BAND COLLECTORS

Hobbyists and collectors go in for antique clocks, dishes, furniture, houses, used postage stamps and match box covers—to name only a few. Many of them spend a great part of their lives learning all about the antecedents, etc., of whatever interests them most.

Well, believe it or not, an important segment of collectors concentrates on cigar bands—those little circular, gaudily lithographed bits of paper that encircle the weed, more for their attractiveness than to hold the wrapper in place.

Collectors of cigar bands throughout the world turned their interest to Chicago a few days ago as the International Cigar Band Society held its annual business meeting and swap session in the Brevort Hotel.

The four day program called for registration, business meetings, dinners and sightseeing tours. But Gilbert C. Budlow, of West Allis, Wis., president, said most of the time was spent trading cigar bands. By trading in large batches with others of the 120 members of the society living in all parts of the world, Budlow has accumulated a collection of 50,000.

TRAILER INDUSTRY

In a contest sponsored by the American Trade Association the Trailer Coach Manufacturers Ass'n. has been given first place for a performance on behalf of and usefulness to the public. The award is based on the association's contribution of temporary living quarters at a time when the general housing situation is critical.

The trailer industry has been one of the fastest growing in the nation, and bids fair to assume greater proportions in the months ahead.

Production plans call for 60,000 more trailers this year. Some will have as many as four rooms, and be air conditioned. Some additional 1,800 trailer camps are being planned throughout the country, calling for an investment of approximately $8,000,000. Right now 750,000 families are living in trailers, while the number on the highways is increasing daily.

The trailer is bringing out the gypsy in American citizens, and bringing about a way of life that continues to grow in favor.

agreement that would give the Holy City peace. Count Bernadotte blamed the Zionists for failure to attain an agreement on his cease-fire request.

The Israeli Government, citing the Arab attack on the water station at Latrun, threatened to renew the fighting in Palestine. It emphasized that the "clear necessity" of replacing the present truce by a peace settlement had been proved and said that if the Arabs did not accept a lasting settlement or withdraw their forces renewed warfare was inevitable.

Here and There In Bucks County Towns

Electric power lines were damaged and current was cut off for some time after nine o'clock, so that repairs could be made.

Bucks County Natural Science Association will present a varied program at Newtown Friends' Meeting House today at two p. m.

Wendell F. Oliver, of Morrisville, in 1943 gave a very unusual talk on "Mushrooms," showing models of many varieties of different shapes and colors. So much was this talk enjoyed that Mr. Oliver was asked to give a similar lesson this year—it being particularly suited for an August meeting when mushrooms are most plentiful.

The second half of the program will be devoted to an illustrated talk on "New Jersey Woodlands" by Ellwood B. Moore, of Pennington N. J. Mr. Moore, when a boy lived in Newtown and attended George School. He is now connected with forests and conservation work in New Jersey, so he is well qualified to talk on pine-pitch and scrub oaks, gums, cedars and the many interesting shrubs of the Jersey wooded areas.

Miss Carrie F. Bailey Is Wed To Charles M. Fischer

The marriage of Miss Carrie Fulton Bailey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Bailey, Sr., Bath Addition, to Mr. Charles M. Fischer, son of Mrs. Emma L. Fischer, Orchard avenue, Bath Addition, and the late Mr. Frank H. Fischer, took place this morning at 10 o'clock in Bristol Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Edward G. Yeomans, pastor, officiated, and Mrs. Marburg D. Weakley presided at the organ.

Miss Dorothy Bailey, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Mr. George W. Fischer served as best man for his brother. Mr. J. David Bailey, brother of the bride, and Mr. Harry Fischer, Jefferson avenue, brother of the bridegroom, were ushers.

The maid wore for the occasion an afternoon dress of white lace with hat, long gloves and slippers in white. Her old-fashioned bouquet was composed of white roses and baby breath.

The maid of honor was attired in a blue crepe dress with trim of white lace; blue lace gloves of three-quarter length, white hat and slippers, and carried an old-fashioned bouquet of pink and blue blossoms.

Attire of Mrs. Bailey, mother of the bride, consisted of a navy blue and white polka dot dress, and black accessories. Mrs. Fischer, the bridegroom's mother, wore an aqua print dress, white hat, and slippers. Corsages of both were composed of white asters.

A reception followed the ceremony, this being for members of the immediate families at the Bailey residence.

The newlyweds are taking a two weeks motor trip through the New England states. They will reside with Mr. Fischer's mother at Bath Addition. Both the bride and her husband are graduates of Bristol high school. The latter served in the U. S. Navy during World War II. His gift to the best man was a sterling silver belt buckle. Mrs. Fischer presented her attendant with a pearl necklace.

DEMOCRAT CLUB WINS 4TH GAME; NOW IN 3RD PLACE

Winning its fourth straight game this week, the Democrat Club jumped into a tie for third place in the Bristol Suburban League. The Democrats nosed out the Voltz-Texaco team, 7-6, on Leedom's field.

What started out to be a scoring bee finished in a hurler's duel as both clubs scored five runs in the first inning. The remainder of the game saw the Democrat Club blanked for five innings and Voltz shut out for four frames.

Both pitchers, "Hal" Shackleton for the gasmen, and Joe Sagolla for the Democrats, had bad starts. Shackleton was socked for four hits and a quintet of markers in the first and allowed four hits the remainder of the contest. Sagolla gave up six hits and five tallies in the first inning and gave up six hits the last seven sessions.

Alex Dewsnap had a "lost ball" home run in the first inning for the Officers, while "Vic" Rockhill, continuing his pounding of the ball with three hits in four trips to the plate. For the Democrats, "Toby" Oriola and "Charlie" Kohler had two hits.

The winning markers were scored in the seventh inning. Keys singled to right, Leighton also hit safely to right and Keys headed for third. On Adams' bad throw, Keys scored and Leighton went to second. Oriola grounded out, Leighton advancing. Pursell hit safely down the third base line to score Leighton.

LEWIS LODGE IS TOUGH OPPONENT FOR HIBERNIANS

The Lewis Lodge of Elks was a tough opponent for the Hibernians last evening on Memorial Park field as the Suburban League game ended in a 4-4 stalemate. The tie game prevented the Hibs from getting a grip on third place.

The mound foes were Earl Wagner and "Bill" Dunkelberger. Both hurlers felt the sting of errors committed by their mates. Dunkelberger allowed eight hits while the Elks had seven off Wagner, the league's leading twirler.

A run in the seventh inning enabled the Hibs to deadlock the count after the Elks had tallied three times to take a 4-3 lead in the sixth. Two were out when the Hibs started their rally with both Wagner and Ludwig drawing walks. After a passed ball, Sackville singled and Wagner crossed. While Elker was batting, Ludwig attempted to score on a short passed ball and was put out at the plate.

The Lewis Lodge had scored its trio of runs in the sixth on three errors and base hits by McCoy, Brown, and Dunkelberger.

Williams and Dunkelberger had two hits each for the Elks while Manager Joe Dolan and "Frankie" Purcell had two hits for the Hibs.

HOUSE COMMITTEE GIVES MRS. KOSENKINA PROTECTION

There was a slight possibility that an important missing witness, J. V. Peters, accused of being the head of the entire Communist spy network in the United States, might be apprehended over the week-end. In that event, he was expected to be placed on the witness stand before the hearings recess.

The decision to wind up the hearings came after Donald Hiss, former government employee; Laughlin Currie, administrative assistant to the late President Roosevelt; and Harry D. White, former assistant secretary of the treasury, denied being Communists or having given any secret wartime information to unauthorized persons. Alger Hiss, former top-ranking State Department official, previously entered his denial of similar charges.

Similar denials were made by Mr. and Mrs. Bela Gold, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Frank Coe, secretary of the International Monetary Fund.
